

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C.A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1906. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Va., as second class mail matter. SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

GRAND OPENING

At Hoffman's Jewelry Store Thursday, Nov. 22, '06. EVERYTHING NEW. All are invited to come and see our newly furnished store and fine display of goods. C. F. Hoffman, Jeweler and Optician.

WHEN YOUR DOCTOR writes a prescription bring it right here to us and the medicine will be exactly as he wants it to be. When he tells you to get any sick room goods or family necessities, come here for them and you will get satisfaction in every particular. We are conducting our drug store in such a way as meets the approval of everybody who is looking for the best drugs and the best service at the fairest price.

We most cordially invite you to come here and do all your drug store trading, and we assure you that we will do everything in our power to make it advantageous and pleasant for you.

A Little of Everything.

"Queen Esther" next week. Hunting accidents are now being reported. License court will be held on Monday, January 21, 1907. Basket ball at Park Theatre Friday night of this week. The Utopia Society held a social at the M. E. parsonage last Friday evening. Special services will be held in the Catholic church on Thanksgiving morning. The trustees of the M. E. church have decided to put a hot air heater in the parsonage. The Ministerial Association will meet at Baptist parsonage in this place Monday, Dec. 3rd. Mrs. Julia Reynolds' committee will hold a market in festal hall of M. E. church Saturday afternoon. George Mitchell, who works at the boiler house at Big Soldier, sprained his left ankle badly yesterday. M. J. Dalley and John Benson, of this place, were on the jury that tried Mrs. Julia Flora for murder. At the monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday night $3,200 was sold. Mrs. L. L. Gourley entertained twenty ladies at a whist party given at her home on Grant street Friday evening. Mrs. Barbara Waite will move from the Robert Waite farm in Winslow township to Jackson street, Reynoldsville. The Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co. made the largest shipment of brick last month ever made since the plant was started. Albert Ward, who was operated on in the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg on the 14th inst. for appendicitis, is getting along nicely. Clarence T. Sharp, of this place, who was taken to the Adrian Hospital last Wednesday morning suffering from appendicitis, was operated on yesterday morning. Prof. W. W. Kiple, a violinist, will play in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. At the morning service Prof. Kiple will play a cradle song from Hauser.

Jury Commissioners John Trudgen, of this place, and Thomas Kearney, of Lane's Mills, are in Brookville this week filling the jury wheel for 1907 courts.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazar and market Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening of this week in the room formerly occupied by Harmon's shoe store, Main st.

A company has been granted a charter to build a trolley line between Ridgway and St. Marys. The company is capitalized at $162,000. The stockholders are citizens of Ridgway and St. Marys.

J. M. Miller, proprietor of the hotel at Eleanor, is in Philadelphia under the care of a specialist and Edward McConnell, of Reynoldsville, has charge of the hotel during Mr. Miller's absence.

J. I. Coleman, of Kelvin, Arizona, brother of M. C. Coleman and brother-in-law of Dr. J. C. King, of Reynoldsville, was elected as a member of the legislature in Arizona at the recent election.

Mrs. C. R. Hall was in Clearfield last week attending the tenth annual state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The annual meeting next year will be held in Williamsport.

Mayor A. V. Lewis, of Donora, Pa., and R. E. Koehler, editor of the Donora American, who spent four days of last week hunting in Horn Settlement, returned home Friday with a half dozen pheasants apiece.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith has taken the agency that Miss Dosta Brooks had for the Royce goods, favoring extracts, toilet water and perfumes. Mrs. Smith will begin now to take orders for Christmas.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Work Society held a social at the Presbyterian parsonage last Thursday evening. The husbands were invited. Supper was served at six o'clock. It was a very pleasant social.

Rev. J. A. McCamey, pastor of the Brookville M. E. church, preached in the Reynoldsville M. E. church Sunday morning and evening. Dr. J. A. Parsons, of this place, filled Rev. McCamey's pulpit in Brookville.

The case of Ezra Caylor, of Ringgold township, charged with the murder of Blanche Reed and the burning of Eli Dinger's barn March 12, 1905, is now on trial in the Jefferson county court. The case was taken up yesterday.

The town council Punxsutawney has passed an ordinance granting a franchise to a new water company in that borough, to be known as the Citizens Water Company. The new company promises to give the citizens of Punxsutawney pure water.

C. E. Shreckengost, of Putneyville, a subscriber for THE STAR, is putting in eight or ten rafts of square timber to be run down Mahoning creek next spring. Square timber rafts, even over on the Mahoning, are not seen in any great number. Rafting is a thing of the past.

James C. Scott, one of our town boys who moved to Rimersburg some months ago to accept a position as bookkeeper in the office of a coal company at that place, has been promoted to superintendent of the mines. Jim's Reynoldsville friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

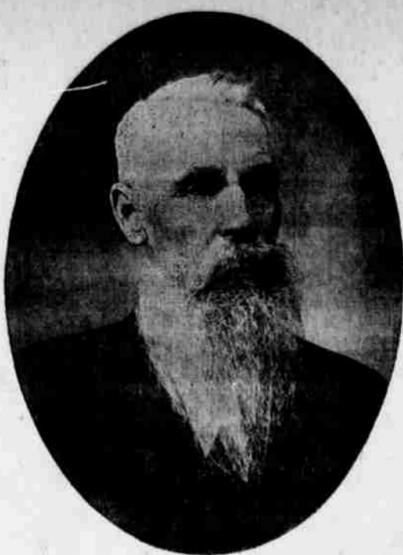

The chorus classes which have been in progress for the past few weeks in the Assembly Hall, under the direction of Miss Rose Mitchell, will give a recital at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray some evening next week. Invitations have been sent to the parents of the children.

Mrs. Squire G. Woodring, of DuBois, died suddenly at her home at noon Saturday from apoplexy. Squire Woodring had received a telegram Saturday forenoon announcing the death of a brother at Akron, Ohio, and was down town arranging to attend his brother's funeral when his wife died.

Sunday afternoon six foreigners were arrested by Constable Perry B. Love for disorderly conduct on Main street. They had horns and were tooting along the street and acting disorderly so it is reported. They were fined over $10.00 apiece. They claimed they did not know they were breaking the law.

H. A. Sherwood, proprietor of the meat market near the Burns House, has bought the West Reynoldsville meat market from J. H. Korb and will run both markets. Mrs. Sherwood will have charge of the market near the Burns House. Mr. Korb has accepted a position in the company store at Helvetia.

Mrs. Margaret Poorbaugh, mother of Mrs. J. W. Myers, of this place, died at her home at Berlin, Somerset county, Pa., about 4.30 p. m. Saturday, November 17, 1906. Mrs. Myers received word of her mother's serious illness and left here Saturday morning, but her mother died before she reached her bedside. Rev. Myers left here yesterday morning to attend the funeral, which takes place to-day. Mrs. Poorbaugh was in her 82nd year.

REV. AND MRS. J. BOOTH, Who Celebrated Their Golden Wedding Yesterday.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING YESTERDAY.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Booth Entertained Nearly Two Hundred Guests at Their Main Street Residence.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Booth, a well known and respected couple of Reynoldsville, who have spent a large portion of a half century in Reynoldsville, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary—golden wedding—at their brick residence on Main street yesterday. Two hundred invitations were issued, half of the guests were invited for 11.00 a. m. and the other half for 5.00 p. m. Notwithstanding the fact that the weather was inclement about 75 persons were present at the eleven o'clock hour and about 125 at five o'clock, making 200 persons present during the day.

The guests of the forenoon were seated at the tables at 12.00 noon. After the good things had been partaken of after-dinner toasts were given. Dr. A. J. Meek was toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "Fifty Years Ago," Rev. J. Booth. He told of the trip he and his wife made to Luthersburg to get married and about their horses running away. "Courtship and Marriage," Rev. C. H. Fitzwilliam, of Punxsutawney; "From one to fifty, Sunshine and Cobble Stones," Rev. J. E. Dean; "Golden Wedding," Rev. C. A. Wilson, of Ridgway; "Growing Old Together," Rev. A. D. McKay. The presentation speech was made by Dr. Meek. The presents were mostly gold coins.

When the five o'clock guests were seated in the dining room Dr. Meek read a song entitled, "Growing Old Together" and the Baptist choir sang it. Rev. J. C. McEntire offered thanks and then the feasting began. During the evening Rev. Hankins and Rev. Crawford each sang a solo, Rev. Meek made another presentation speech and Rev. Fitzwilliam made a short address.

This wedding anniversary was the largest and one of the most pleasant social events that has taken place in Reynoldsville for some time. The guests departed at an early hour wishing Rev. Booth and his estimable wife many years yet of happiness and contentment. Mrs. G. G. Sprague was present at the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. Booth fifty years ago and attended the golden wedding.

Among the out of town guests present were Rev. C. A. Wilson, of Ridgway, Rev. I. S. Hankins, of DuBois, Rev. Fitzwilliams and wife, of Punxsutawney, Rev. J. W. Crawford and wife, of Sykesville, Mrs. W. D. Gates, Mrs. H. P. Fullerton, Mrs. W. J. Ammerman, of Curwensville, J. Bippus, of Butler.

November 20, 1856, a beautiful day, J. Booth and Miss Anne Eliza Minich, and two other couples, drove from Reynoldsville to Luthersburg, Pa., where Rev. Fegal performed the ceremony that joined Mr. Booth and Miss Minich together in the holy bonds of matrimony. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Booth ten children were born, four of whom died after they had grown to manhood and womanhood. The living sons and daughters, all of whom, with their wives, husbands and children, attended the golden wedding, are: Clarence Booth, of Wilkinsburg, Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bowser, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. S. A. Bowser, of Ford City, Dr. Fred K. Booth, of Fairmont City, Mrs. Stewart Crozier, of Johnstown, Mrs. James Hanley, of Reynoldsville. The names of dead sons and daughters are: Rev. Thomas W. Booth, John H. Booth, Mrs. J. Bippus, Mrs. G. B. Postlethwait. Rev. Booth and wife have thirteen grand-children and three great grand-children.

Rev. Booth resides in Reynoldsville, but he has been pastor of the Baptist church at Curwensville over a year, where he has built a pretty and substantial church during his pastorate. He also preaches at Glen Richey, Clearfield county.

Theatrical Notes.

Barney Bernard is a fellow of infinite jest and scored a notable success at the opening of the new Park Theatre Wednesday evening last. The building was unfinished, it was not possible to get it warm and the people were by no means comfortable, yet Bernard and his troupe of fun makers kept everyone in a good humor throughout the evening. The production was equal to expectations, fulfilling Manager Dawson's promise of giving the people of Reynoldsville the best that can be secured in the theatrical world. No more elaborate staging and scenery or gorgeous costumes have ever been witnessed in the town. "The Rollicking Girl" has just enough plot to connect an endless series of laughter producing situations, dancing specialties and singing. Bernard, as Schmalz, the wig maker, was the favorite of the evening, and Paul Decker and Helen Dexter came in for generous applause. The latter is a remarkably clever dancer as well as actress. Of the numerous musical numbers, "The Indians Along Broadway" was the hit of the evening and repeatedly scored.

Nick Russell's Big Comedy Co. is filling a three-night engagement at the Park Theatre, beginning Monday night and closing to-night. Monday night the company played "Peaceful Valley," last night the "Indian" and to-night they will play "Wife in Name Only."

National Bank Reports.

Reports of the First National bank and the Citizens National bank will be found in this issue of THE STAR.

Leg Broken.

County Treasurer Ira J. Campbell, of Brookville, had his left leg broken at the knee in getting out of a carriage in Brookville Sunday afternoon.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the M. E. church at 10.30 a. m. on Thursday of next week, November 29. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach the sermon.

"Queen Esther."

Sacred cantata, "Queen Esther," by home talent, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, will be presented at the Park Theatre, Reynoldsville, on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, Nov. 29 and 30.

Freight Wreck.

A freight train was wrecked on the Pennsylvania railroad near Bennecette yesterday forenoon. Fifteen cars were piled up. Passenger traffic was delayed. The eastbound train due here at 12.52 was annulled east DuBois.

Skating Rink.

At the last meeting of the board of directors of the Reynoldsville Amusement Company it was decided to order skates and during the off nights from shows, etc., the Park Theatre will be used as a skating rink.

Basket Ball.

The opening game of basket ball will be played in the Park Theatre at this place on Friday evening of this week, Nov. 23, between the Butler Athletic team and the Athletic Association team of Reynoldsville. The Butler team is a fast one and lovers of basket ball can expect to see a fast and interesting game Friday night. Game will be called at 8.30. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Convicted of Manslaughter.

Mrs. Julia Flora, wife of Ralph Flora, who shot her brother-in-law, Joe Flora, at Florence October 19, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter in the Jefferson county court yesterday. The case was taken up Saturday morning and given to the jury yesterday forenoon. The jury was out about one hour. Mrs. Flora has not been sentenced yet.

Married in New Bethlehem.

Miss Elvira R. D. Hoke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Hoke, of this place, and Walter Roy Newberry, of Hopkins, were married at the M. E. parsonage in New Bethlehem on Wednesday afternoon, November 7, 1906, by Rev. James H. Jelbart. Mr. and Mrs. Newberry returned to Reynoldsville on the 6.25 p. m. train Wednesday. They have gone to housekeeping on a flat in the brick building opposite the post-office. THE STAR joins with their many friends in offering congratulations and good wishes.

Fell off Excursion Train.

A man from Hick's Run, who was on the first section of the P. R. R. excursion to Pittsburg Sunday, fell off the train on the curve near where A. O'Donnell's old mill stood, three miles west of Reynoldsville. The man was going from one car to another. The train was running about forty miles an hour when he fell off. Some of his companions saw him fall and notified the conductor. The train was stopped and was backing up to where the man had fallen off when the man was met walking down the track. He was well shaken up, but not badly injured. His escape was miraculous. He lost his pocketbook and railroad ticket in falling off the train. He gave up the trip to Pittsburg and returned home on the noon train.

The ladies will all be remembered at Hoffman's opening Nov. 22, 1906.

We sell the Ostermoor Mattress. Better than hair. Built, not stuffed. J. R. Hillis & Co.

Stole Spoons and Jewelry.

One of the men who travels with and assisted in putting up the scenery for "The Rollicking Girl" Company that played in Reynoldsville last Wednesday night, secured a room at residence of Mrs. Harriet Morrow and when he left he took Mrs. Morrow's silver spoons with him. The spoons were missed Thursday morning. Mrs. K. C. Schuckers, daughter of Mrs. Morrow, went to Warren on the noon train Thursday night. By the assistance of the chief of police of Warren the spoon thief was found. He returned the spoons and paid Mrs. Schuckers' expense to Warren.

Sunday morning Mrs. Morrow discovered that the thief had stolen her engagement ring and a gold chain and Masonic charm which had belonged to her husband, now deceased. The jewelry was not only valuable but Mrs. Morrow prized it highly as a keepsake. "The Rollicking Girl" played at Sharon Monday night, but the thief is not with the show now and Mrs. Morrow will not likely get back the chain, charm and ring.

urpse Party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Rathmel were given a surprise party yesterday, that being the 36th anniversary of their wedding day. The guests assembled at the Smith residence Tuesday forenoon. There were about fifty present. An excellent dinner, prepared by other hands than Mrs. Smith's, was served. Among the presents was a well filled purse.

Defeated St. Marys.

The Reynoldsville high school basket ball team played the St. Marys high school team at the latter place last Friday evening and defeated them. Score 27-10 in favor of Reynoldsville boys. A report of game will be found in the high school "Bulletin" column on another page of this issue of THE STAR.

Building Skating Rink.

Contractor Thomas E. Evans is building a roller skating rink on rear of I. O. O. F. block. The rink is 50x90 feet and is built of tile. Mr. Evans expects to open rink about the 15th of next month. The latest improved steel roller skates will be used. It will be a first class skating rink.

Married in Mexico.

Charles LeClair King, son of Dr. J. C. King, of Reynoldsville, who is now located at Guajuato, Mexico, and Miss Mabelle Steele, of Parsons, Kansas, were married at El Paso, Mexico, on Wednesday of last week, Nov. 14, 1906.

Sunday Excursion to Pittsburg.

There were two sections of the excursion to Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania railroad Sunday. Ten coaches on first section and twelve on second section going down. At least 1,000 people took in the excursion. Ninety tickets were sold at Reynoldsville.

Robert H. Longwell, of Brockwayville, who was elected on the 6th inst. as an Assemblyman from Jefferson county, was in town Saturday and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Longwell got the largest vote given any one candidate in the county at the recent election and he feels very much pleased over it. He appreciates the vote given him in this borough. Mr. Longwell is a bright man and a good talker and will no doubt give a good account of himself in the next session of the legislature.

Dr. D. M. Jackson, the well known eye specialist from Tamsqua, Pa., expects to be in our town again on Saturday, Nov. 24, 1906, and remain five days at the Imperial hotel. The doctor is a graduate of the leading optical college in the state, and his skill in his profession is well known in our town for the last sixteen years, and treated hundreds of cases with success and no drops, so our townspeople will not lose the opportunity to call on him.—2t

Clark's thread, two spools for 5 cents at Millirens.

EARL FINK FATALLY INJURED.

Caught Between Grip Car and Load of Empty in Soldier Mine.

Earl K. Fink, gripman on No. 1 rope haulage in Big Soldier mine, was caught between the grip car and a load of empty cars in the mine about 11.00 a. m. on Wednesday of last week and his left leg so badly crushed at the knee that it had to be amputated five inches above the knee, but the shock of accident was too much for him and he died at 8.00 p. m. Saturday, November 17, 1906, in the DuBois Hospital. Mr. Fink miraculously escaped sudden death at the time of accident, as he was under the cars at one time. The injured man was taken to the DuBois Hospital Wednesday afternoon and his leg was amputated Friday forenoon, but he expired at time stated. His wife and a brother, Ford Fink, spent most of Saturday afternoon with him, and felt encouraged when they left the hospital about 6.00 p. m. In less than an hour after they left the hospital Earl became unconscious and did not regain consciousness again.

Sunday the body was brought to the home of Joseph M. Cathers in this place, brother-in-law of deceased, and at 2.00 p. m. Monday funeral service was held at home of Mr. Cathers, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Earl King Fink, son of John W. Fink, was born in Reynoldsville May 29, 1880, and was 26 years old last May. September 5, 1900, he was married to Miss Sadie Slee, whom with a son and daughter, survive the husband and father. He is also survived by his father, three sisters, Mrs. Richard Ramsey, Mrs. J. M. Cathers and Mrs. Clarence H. Patterson, of Reynoldsville, two brothers, Ford B. Fink, of Pittsburg, and John L. Fink, of Reynoldsville.

Earl was a very industrious young man, was a kind husband and father, and had many friends.

Queen Esther Cantata.

The beautiful sacred cantata of "Queen Esther," under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church of Reynoldsville, will be given in the new Park Theatre on Thursday (Thanksgiving) and Friday nights, Nov. 29 and 30th, 1906, by local talent. Curtain goes up at 8.15 p. m. sharp. All that possibly can should attend this sublime and grandly beautiful bible story in song.

Reserved seats on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, at 9:00 a. m. Wednesday, Nov. 28.

The House-Keeper.

The Prizer Stoves and Ranges represent the best of everything in stove making. They please the house-keeper, because they are what they want at prices they can afford to pay. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Royal Quality.

When you buy flour why not get the best in the city. It does not cost any more than other brands, but is guaranteed to give satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it.

W. G. SPENCER, Clearfield, Pa.

Quality and Excellence.

The Prizer Stoves and Ranges are an evidence of leadership in style and construction. They contain all the latest ideas, and will please the house-keeper who desires the best results in baking and cooking. High in quality—moderate in price. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Crabapple soap 5 cents at Millirens. We don't handle the hot blast that blows up. Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

School caps at Millirens.

Trunks and suit cases at Millirens.

One of the attractions at Hoffman's opening is the hand painted china, done by the best American artists. Call and see it Nov. 22, 1906.